

INTRO: C 2 bars, Dm 1 bar, G7 1 bar, C 2 bars C

VERSE 1

Her name was Joanne
 F G7 C Em F G7
 And she lived in a meadow by a pond..... Ahaa(Falsetto)
 C
 And she touched me for a moment
 F G7 C Em F G7
 With a look that spoke to me of her sweet love(Falsetto).
 F G
 And the woman that she was
 C Am
 Drove her on with desperation
 F G
 And I saw as she went
 C Am
 A most hopeless situation
 F Fm
 For Joanne and the man and the
 G7 C
 Time that made them both run

VERSE 2

C
 She was only a girl,
 F G7 C Em F G7
 I know that well but still I could not see.....(Falsetto).
 C
 That the hold that she had
 F G7 C Em F G7
 Was much stronger than the love she felt for me(Falsetto).
 F G
 While staying with her
 C Am
 And my little bit of wisdom
 F G
 Broke down her desires
 C Em Am
 Like a light through a prism
 F Fm
 Into yellows and blues
 G7 C
 And a tune that I could not have sung

Am
 Though the essence is gone
 Dm
 I have no tears to cry for her
 F G7
 And my only thoughts of her are kind

Repeat VERSE 1

Repeat last 2 lines of VERSE 1
 then Dm, G7, C (slowing)