Intro: [A] [E7] [A] [A] [E7] [A]

In a [A] little church on the [D] village green, I [E7] vowed my life a [A] way.
Followed by a little [D] gathering for [E7] those who wished to [A] stay.
Everyone who came brought us [D] something good,
to [E7] fill our happy [A] home
But a certain something [D] caught my eye, it [E7] stood out on its [A] own,
On its [Edim] own.....[B7] [B7] [E7]

Chorus:

[A] Aunty Alice brought us this, [D] Aunty Alice brought us [A] this
Not too late, not too soon, [B7] press it in the middle it'll [E7] play a tune.
[A] Aunty Alice brought us this, [D] Aunty Alice brought [E7] this
We got a [A] clock from Uncle [G] Wilber [Edim] force,
But [B7] Aunty Alice [E7] brought us [A] this [E7] [A] [A] [E7] [A]

When the [A] Vicar stood up [D] for his speech, there was [E7] not one eye on [A] him.
Everybody waiting [D] anxiously for [E7] Aunty to come [A] in.
And my pretty wife, who was [D] full of strife, she [E7] said it wasn't [A] fair
That our [A] wedding day was a [D] runner up to [E7] that thing over [A] there,
Over [Edim] there.....[B7] [B7] [E7]

Chorus:

[A] Aunty Alice brought us this, [D] Aunty Alice brought us [A] this
Not too late, not too soon, [B7] press it in the middle it'll [E7] play a tune.
[A] Aunty Alice brought us this, [D] Aunty Alice brought [E7] this
We got a [A] clock from Uncle [G] Wilber [Edim] force,
But [B7] Aunty Alice [E7] brought us [A] this [E7] [A] [A] [E7] [A]

When we [A] left the town on our [D] honeymoon, to an [E7] island far a [A] way Every [A] thing was good, and I [D] felt we could, have [E7] stayed and stayed and [A] stayed
Walking [A] in the sand, swimming [D] in the sea, or [E7] lazing in the [A] sun
But when the [A] evening came, there were [D] better ways of [E7] joining in the [A] fun,
In the [Edim] fun.....[B7] [B7] [E7]
